CONTINUATION of the JOURNAL of OCCURRENCES in BOSTON.

BOSTON, FEBRUARY 4.

WE learn from South-Carolina that writs have been issued for calling a new assembly, after the dissolution of the last for not rescinding, as has been done by every governor on the continent, excepting ONE, the M------ts, whose ambition leads him to make his administration as odious and distressing to the people as is possible: Some letters from thence also mention "that as the American board of commissioners are determined at carrying all their powers into execution, they shall not be surprised, to hear orders are given to make another attempt to oblige all the scooners in that province, that go over the Bar, to enter and clear at the offices." The conduct of the B----d of C--m---rs in this place cannot but lead us to conclude, that they conceive the great design of their institution, is not for the regulation, but absolute destruction of trade, and fleecing of the merchants; the little Guarda Costas under their directions continue stopping and searching of coasters, and the masters chests do not escape a rummage; and it as true as it is vexatious, that even open boats from Cape Ann beach with sand, are put to the charge of making an entry at the custom-house, and this notwithstanding the opinion of the Attorney G----l Mr. D------g, has been sent over, which is clearly against the propriety and right, of their obliging vessels going from one part of the province to another, to an entry.

We have advice from North-Carolina that the general assembly of that province, had read and answered the Virginia and Massachusetts circular letters, with all due respect, and agreed upon a petition to his Majesty for a redress of grievances. That their regulators had drove a gang of villians into the back parts of South-Carolina, where by reason of the CIRCUIT court act, not having been confirmed at home, fresh uneasiness had been given the inhabitants, the consequence whereof they could not pretend to tell: however this may be, we do not hear that their governor desires, or has wrote for, a single grenadier, to protect and assist the civil magistrates in that province in the execution of their duty.

February 5. There has been much talk of an anonymous letter sent from hence to lord Hillsborough; and by him remitted to Governor Bernard: "For some time the report was not credited, but now the fact is ascertained, Governor Bernard has shewn the letter to some gentlemen, who waited on him last week, requesting a sight of it, but did not allow a copy of it to be taken. It speaks highly of Governor Bernard, &c. but contains the most malignant insinuations against some respectable gentlemen in this town, who are mentioned by name. It speaks of deep and dark designs carrying on notwithstanding the peaceable landing of the troops; of an alliance to be formed between Holland and some of the colonists, in order to throw off the dependance of the latter upon Great-Britain, at the first breaking out of a new war, and of 30,000 men between Boston and New-York ready to take up arms: it advises, that some leading men should be inveigled over to Britain, and not sent there by force, lest this should make too much noise and occasion resistance. The governor it is said declared that he made no account of the letter, and should make no account of it in his dispatches. Be this as it may, is it not affonishing, that a letter so palpably base and malicious, so extravagantly false and without a name, should be so much noticed by a S------y of S------te, as to be returned by him to G. Bernard. Here is a fresh specimen of the methods that have been employed against the rights of the colonists and those gentlemen that have distinguished themselves in favour of those rights. Had such a letter been written on the other side the question, and so much noticed, what reflections would have been made upon it?

February 6. We cannot forbear making a few observations on the curious and laboured accounts, of the British government, and the debates in the house of commons on American affairs, given in the court gazette, of Thursday last. What pains are taken to make us believe, contrary to the latest and most authentic advices from home, that the affairs of America in general, and particularly of this province, are in a situation almost desperate, only because a few among us have done every thing in their power to make them so, and cannot endure the thoughts, of not having their own prophecies fulfilled, their misrepresentations successful, and their malevolence gratified.-----It seems that of late, administration has not only adopted implicitly the accounts of facts, but the reasonings upon them, and even governmental matters, as they have been stated, and suggested by a few of its servants on this side the water: hence the embarrassments of the ministry, and the perplexity of the nation, from the unnatural contest with the colonies, at a season when the circumstances of Europe, require the most perfect union at home, to give weight to our negociations, and awe to those, who might wish to disturb our repose.

The tenor of his Majesty's speech at the opening of the parliament, as it respects America is easily accounted for, from the Budget, which about that time was received from hence. The ministry seemed to believe, at the first opening of the Budget, that the proceedings of a certain town in America, were not only to the highest degree seditious, but nothing short of treason itself; and that they had full evidence of all this in their hands.----- Though the people at a distance from the seat of government, are always under great disadvantages, with respect to a fair state of their case, in any disputes between them and the servants of the crown, yet truth very soon so far made its own way, that upon a clear inspection into affairs, the charge appeared to be laid too high: nor is there a person either in or out of parliament, who has justly stated or proved, one single act of that town, as a public body, to be, we will not say, treasonable or seditious, but even at all illegal: nor is it in the power of any man, either on this or the other side the Atlantic, to do it.-----

New vouchers we are told, are called for from authority: this is no favourable symptom to the sudden and warm accusers: for we believe there are more than one, who may find if an Augean enterprise, to support their own representation. For it is certainly beyond human art and sophistry, to prove that British subjects, to whom the privilege of possessing arms is expressly recognized by the bill of rights, and, who live in a province where the law requires them to be equipped with arms, &c, are guilty of an illegal act, in calling upon one another to be provided with them, as the law directs. But if some are bold and base enough, where the interest of a whole country is at stake, to penetrate into the secrets of the human breast, to search for crimes, and to impute the worst of motives to actions strictly legal, whatever may be thought of their expediency, it is easy to recriminate in the same way; and one man has as good reason to affirm, that a few in calling for a military force under pretence of supporting civil authority, secretly intended to introduce a general murder, as another has to assert, that a number of loyal subjects, by calling upon one another to be provided with arms, according to law, intended to bring on an insurrection.

Pleas-Office, March 21ſt 1768.

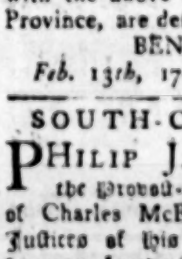
The PARTNERSHIP of

GODFREY & GADSDEN,

Having expired with the laſt Year.

THEY return their thanks to their FRIENDS and CUSTOMERS for their favours received, and being under a neceſſity of cloſing their concerns as ſoon as poſſible, they will be additionally obliged to thoſe indebted to them, to diſcharge the ſame this crop, that they may be enabled to ſettle the demands that may be againſt the copartnerſhip: And, as there is a very large amount of debts in open accompts, that have been long ſtanding, they muſt inſiſt on the ſame being paid, or otherwiſe ſettled to their ſatisfaction, as a neglect of ſo reaſonable a demand, will be attended with diſagreeable conſequences.

Rice, Deer-Skins and Indico, ſuch as we ſhall approve of, will be taken in payment, at the market price, if offered to us on its arrival in Charles-Town. [t.f.]



TO BE SOLD,

(And entered upon immediately)

THE Lot, Stores and Wharf, in George-Town, lately occupied by Meſſrs. Godfrey & Gadſden, being in the beſt ſituation for trade. Alſo three other Lots, adjoining. Any perſon inclinable to purchaſe the ſame, may apply to

CHRISTOPHER GADSDEN.

THOMAS GADSDEN,

Begs leave to acquaint his FRIENDS, that lately favoured him with their cuſtom and aſſiſtance, when in partnerſhip with Mr. GODFREY,

THAT he intends to carry on buſineſs in his own name alone, after the cloſe of this year, and will therefore be obliged to them for a CONTINUANCE of their FAVOURS, as he will endavour to keep up a GOOD ASSORTMENT of ſuch GOODS as are uſually imported into this province, which he is determined to ſell at the moſt reaſonable rates:——Among thoſe on hand, he has printed Linens and Cottons, at 10*d*. and 13/9. per yard, alſo a great variety of LINEN DRAPERY GOODS, at Nine for One, CASH, by the piece or quantity.

Rice, Deer-Skins, and Indico (ſuch as he may approve of) will always be taken, at the market price, in payment of accompts.

It will be equally difficult to prove it illegal, for a number of British subjects, to invite as many of their fellow subjects as they please, to convene and to conſult together, on the moſt prudent and conſtitutional meaſures for the redreſs of their grievances; or that ſuch an aſſembly had actually aſſumed the powers of government, when they actually diſclaimed all ſuch powers, and united in recognizing their ſubjection to government, by humble petitions and remonſtrances, and by encouraging their fellow ſubjects in their loyalty, and good order. But the people of Boſton are charged with "ingratitude for the repeal of the ſtamp-act! and becauſe ſome refuſed to make compenſation to the ſufferers in behalf of that act, and others did it with an ill grace!" What artful confuſion is here to make a ſingle town odious? were the people of Boſton, ever applied to for a compenſation? did not the requiſition come to the general aſſembly; in which there were only four members for Boſton? Did not theſe members unite with the general aſſembly in granting ample compenſation? Was not this a free generous act? Could any power on earth, conſtitutionally, oblige the province or the town to pay the damages done by unknown rioters? Has the parliament done this in the late riots in England? Did Rhode-Iſland make compenſation, tho' called upon as this province was? Are Howard and Moffatt, compenſated to this day by that colony? what has it ſuffered for its refuſal? it has been complimented for its loyalty and good order in one of Ld. H--ſb----h's circular letters, with a view to induce it to treat with contempt this province, which had compenſated? But Rhode-Iſland had ſenſe and virtue to deſpiſe the ridiculous lure, and generoſity not to withdraw its aid from the common cauſe.----Without ſaying any thing more upon this point, we may venture to appeal to the candid world, where the ingratitude lies!

As to the repeal of the Stamp-Act, though the people of this province and America univerſally regarded this act as an infraction of their conſtitutional rights, and conſequently humbly claimed the repeal as a point of equity, they yet received it with as much gratitude as if it had been a free gift. They bleſſed their ſovereign.----They revered the wiſdom and goodneſs of the Britiſh parliament-----They felt themſelves happy, till new acts equally unconſtitutional were made, and ſeverities impoſed upon trade, unknown even at the time of the Stamp-Act.----But it ſeems we are unpardonable for not being thankful for the removal of one burthen, after another is laid upon us by the ſame hands, equally hard to bear! How contemptible is ſuch reaſoning! What an affront to common ſenſe! We never heard of ſuch diſcourſe in parliament, till we ſaw our Court Paper; and can theſe perſons be friends to the leading men in government, who repreſent them as reaſoning in ſuch a manner?----

But force is no very ſuitable means of changing the ſentiments of the people! It is rather adapted to rivet and confirm them. Arms ought to be very cautiouſly employed, even againſt faction, they have often increaſed rather than quelled------The preſent uneaſineſs in America, has been falſely and inſolently called by this odious name: Can any man ſuppoſe, the almoſt univerſal complaints of a people, to deſerve this appellation? As well might the general uneaſineſs that introduced the revolution by William the Third, and that ſettled the ſucceſſion in the illuſtrious houſe of Hanover, be called a faction!

February 7. The Court Gazette before referred to, gives us an account of what was ſaid in parliament in vindication of the meaſures of the miniſtry, reſpecting the colonies, and this province in particular, that deſerves to be attended to. With reſpect to the non preſentation of the petition of the Maſſachuſetts houſe to the King, the intelligencer ſays, it was declared the petition had never been given to the S------y of State.----This is not true, it is an undoubted fact, that the Petition was offered by Mr. Deberdt to L--d H---ſb----gh, as he has declared in a letter to the ſpeaker, ſo that this could not be the reaſon why it was not preſented, in groſs violation of the conſtitutional right of the ſubject. And here we ſuſpect that the S------y was led into a ſcrape by his judicious friend, on this ſide the water, who formed a plan for the non preſentation, ſuch as might be expected, which was not ſolid enough to bear mentioning in parliament, and ſo the whole vindication was reſted on the denial that it had been ever given to the S------y. As to the order to require the Aſſembly to reſcind, this it was ſaid was "only to give the Aſſembly an opportunity to correct a fault of a former aſſembly; and the order to diſſolve was a direction for the Governor's conduct in caſe of non-compliance; neither of them being addreſſed to the aſſembly, could be deemed a mandate or a threat to a corporation; the Aſſembly would of courſe meet again in May." According to this account, the S-----y never deſigned to threaten a corporation; no, it was his intention to leave the aſſembly freely, and without any manner of conſtraint and bias, to correct the error of a former one: The orders not being addreſſed to the aſſembly, it ſeems were not deſigned to be ſhewn to the aſſembly, or to have any influence on their deciſions; ſo that either G------r B------d groſsly miſtakes the intention of L--d H---ſb---gh, and raſhly exceeded it, in a point of the greateſt conſequence; or this is a quibbling fallacious excuſe of his L----p's conduct, ſaid by the authority of our Court Gazette, to have been offered in parliament. For did not G------r B------d lay before the Houſe, L--d H---ſh---gh's letters, wherein he was directed to diſſolve the aſſembly, in caſe of their non reſcinding? Had not this letter thus communicated, all the effect upon the deliberations of the houſe, on this point, as if it had been formally addreſſed to them? Did not G------r B------d declare, that he looked upon himſelf indiſpenſably obliged to comply with the order in this letter? did he not refuſe a recaſs to the houſe, which they requeſted in order to conſult their conſtituents, upon ſo important a point? Nay when the houſe took only a few days to deliberate upon this critical affair, did not the G----r expreſs his impatience by a meſſage, requiring them to come to an immediate determination, as otherwiſe he ſhould take their heſitation as a poſitive refuſal? Did he not, according to the order, diſſolve the aſſembly, and at the ſame time declare himſelf not at liberty to call another, without freſh inſtructions from the miniſtry? As to the aſſembly, meeting of courſe in May, it is an artful evaſion. The aſſembly cannot meet then, without writs being iſſued from the G------r, for that purpoſe. It is true the charter provides for the meeting of the aſſembly at that time; but people were made to believe, that non reſcinding would annihilate the charter, and that there never would be another aſſembly. It is certain that G. B. and others, ſpake upon this point in a manner that directly tended to create ſuch an apprehenſion both among the aſſembly and the people.

February 8. The military ſtill continue their extravagances: About ſix officers coming through King-ſtreet, ſome nights paſt, were hailed by the Town-houſe watch; this it ſeems was taken as ſuch an affront, that no language was bad enough for the watchmen; they even formed a ſort of a blockade to the watch-houſe, which was continued for about three hours; but having learned caution by the misfortune of one of their corps, not long ſince, they neither of them choſe to come within the reach of the watchmen's bill-hooks.-----As ſeveral officers were paſſing the ſtreets one evening, they were heard to expreſs their wiſhes that the town might be burnt down; and caſt very abuſive reflections on the ſelectmen, threatning, to give them all a ſevere whipping, before three months had expired. This evening as a ſober inhabitant was returning home with his wife, they were overtaken by ſeveral officers of the navy; who accoſted them in a very indecent manner, and ſwore that the woman ſhould go on board the man of war; upon her expoſtulating with them for this rudeneſs in the preſence of her huſband, they d--n'd him, and ſwore ſhe ſhould go on board with them; one of them laid hold of the huſband while another was pulling the wife along with him; her ſcreams ſoon brought up a gentleman, who preſently diſcovered one of the criminals to be a L----t of a King's ſhip, and we hear the injured party intends proſecuting him, for this audacious attempt.

February 9. One of our coaſting ſhallops, which lay at Hubbard's wharf the laſt week, was examined by one of our new ſea Cuſtom houſe officers; he happened to find a ſmall quantity of bad fiſh on board, the veſſel not having been entered out, and he informed the ſkipper of this diſcovery, in ſuch a manner, as cauſed him immediately to put out of harbour with his veſſel, for fear of a ſeizure. Other ſkippers bound to different parts of the province, have had their veſſels ſtopt, and even libelled for having things on board not cleared out: this has given ſuch alarm, that even the ſkippers of open boats do not care to take ſo much as a loaf or two of ſugar on board, until it has been reported, and as this cannot be done without the ſugar boilers making oath reſpecting the ſugar, the trouble given the maſters and freighters in this, and innumerable like caſes, is inexpreſſible; the detention of coaſters by means of theſe novel formalities, is very detrimental to the owners, and vexatious to thoſe who depend upon receiving family ſupplies by water. In ſhort almoſt every ſtep taken ſince the arrival of the C--m-------rs, appears to have a direct tendency to embarraſs, if not totally to annihilate the trade of the province.

CHARLES-TOWN, APRIL 27.
